

DAVID B. HENDERSON

david.henderson@duke.edu

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

- Second year student at Duke University pursuing a double major in Global Health and Economics with a certificate in Caribbean Studies
- Cumulative GPA: 3.886
- Dean's List With Distinction: Fall 2016, Spring 2016

GLOBAL HEALTH WORK EXPERIENCE

- Sante Health D'Idadee Community Medicine Intern June-October 2016
 - Created a supply chain for equipment and pharmaceuticals to arrive in Cap-Haitian from abroad in a timely and cost-effective manner
 - Spent three months in Haiti working with the clinic's Chief Medical Officer to increase the reach of the clinic's community-based AIDS and maternal health programs
 - Qualified for highly competitive funding grant from Duke University's Non-Profit Internship Funding Program
- Partners in Health Intern, Summer 2015
 - Worked as an intern for the PIH Engage National Team
 - Built, tested, and implemented a 20 Week Global Health Curriculum focused on PIH's health care delivery philosophy, which was used by more than 100 teams at universities and graduate schools across North America
 - Managed PIH Engage's NationBuilder website
 - Posted updates, built an interactive map, and managed accounts
 - Created training manuals for Team Coordinators, Advocacy Leads, Fundraising Leads, and Community-Building Leads
- Partners in Health Engage Team Member Fall 2015-Present
 - Work with team of undergraduate students to fundraise and advocate North Carolina lawmakers on behalf of Partners in Health
- Team Tassy Haiti Community Development Internship Summer 2014
 - Planned Great American Water Balloon Fight fundraiser (>1,500 participants)
 - Digitized health records from Haitian patients
- Personal Haiti-based initiatives
 - Post-Earthquake Fundraising:
 - Held annual Dance for Haiti fundraiser that raised $6,000 over three years
 - Planned t-shirt drive that raised $47,000 for post-earthquake health efforts
 - Worked with a small group of Haitian young adults to plan and run Surf City Haiti, a summer camp for three orphanages in Haiti every summer from 2013 to 2016

RESEARCH AND WRITING EXPERIENCE

- The Mt. Olive Project
 - Conducting independent research under Dr. Laurent Dubois

- Chronicling the lives and struggles of Mt. Olive, North Carolina's Haitian immigrant community and comparing health and quality of life with relatives who have remained in Haiti
- Final product—interactive multimedia website and timeline chronicling the migrants' experiences, to be built in Spring 2017
- Masterclass in Journalistic Feature Writing
 - One of 7 Duke students selected based on writing ability to enroll in a master class under renowned journalists Bill Adair, founder of Pulitzer Prize-winning journalistic research site Politifact, and Jonathan M. Katz, author of The Big Truck that Went By
 - Course focuses on both writing ability and research skills
- Staff Reporter, Duke Chronicle
- Contributor, The Haitian Times

CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT

- Barista and Sound System Operator, Duke Coffeehouse
 - Host and run sound for social justice-centric speeches and musical performances
- Compass Fellowship
 - Chosen for selective fellowship to study social entrepreneurship under professors and older students
 - Attended weekly seminars, participated in start-up challenge events
 - Researched merit and sustainability of different approaches to social business
- DJ at WXDU
 - Host weekly radio show on which I spotlight Caribbean artists